

Fall 2024 Irish Studies and Cross-listed Courses

$750 scholarships for the first 10 students to register and qualify

Contact: 713-525-3592; gallagl@stthom.edu

Irish Diaspora: Irish American Experience

(W 5:30-8:15 pm; online synchronous (OS))

IRST 3367-N /MLIRS 5367-N

HIST 4393-N /MLHIS 6393-N

INST 4393-NB /MDSA 6393-NC

Lori Gallagher JD (Irish Studies)

This course explores:

*Causes of transatlantic migration of the Irish and the development of a subculture of Irish Americans in the U.S.

*Political, social, legal, religious, cultural and economic aspects of life in Ireland that gave rise to emigration

*How the Irish made a mark on American society, politics, law and culture

*How the Irish American experience is a case study for other immigrant experiences today

Celtic Spirituality

IRST 4339A /MLIRS 6339A

THEO 4339A /MLTHE 6339A

(MW 1:40-2:50 pm) (in person)

Dr. David Deavel (Theology)

This course:

*Is a systematic study of the concepts and practices of the Christian spiritual life, with a special emphasis on understanding Celtic Spirituality and influences of Anglo-Saxon spirituality on it

*Will be undertaken by a reading and study of selected texts by the great spiritual masters and writers of the Church from the Celtic and Anglo-Saxon tradition